

Festivities Agenda

Throughout the year 2005, the LCD will organize activities and discussion-debates on social, philosophical, political, literary, scientific and cultural subjects with the partaking of specialists from the LCD. Separate agenda

January 2005

- Friday 21st January Press conference: presentation of the festivities program and of the new graphic charter of the LCD.
- Saturday 22nd January - 15th "Forum for a multicultural Europe", event organized in cooperation with the national Saturday 29th January Youth Service of the Ministry for National Education on the occasion of Luxembourg's Presidency. On Sunday morning, European participants of 25 countries are welcomed at the Old Sawmill by representatives of the LCD, the private school Ste Anne of Ettelbruck and the Lycée du Nord of Wiltz.
The physical education trainees will organize games and sports activities, and later on the 200 participants will have lunch at the Old Sawmill. The LCD will welcome the delegations of Vienna, Sternberk (Czech Republic) and Mönchengladbach for these gatherings that will take place all week long in Mersch.

February 2005

- Friday 18th February - Romulus the Great by Dürrenmatt staged by the LCD's theatrical group in the auditorium of Sunday 20th February the Old Building.

April 2005

- Friday 22nd April - 40th European Days organized by the LCD: European meetings with more than 500 pupils
Sunday 24th April and a hundred teachers from Saint-Amand -les Eaux (France), from Neerpelt (Belgium), Valkenswaard (Netherlands) and Mönchengladbach (Germany).
- Monday 25th April Presentation to the press of the LCD's social projects.
- Monday 25th April - European Program ARION: visits and conferences on the subject of "The European Friday 29th April Citizenship" for the people in charge of teaching in the various European countries, organized jointly by the LCD and national agency SOCRATES.
- Wednesday 27th April "Aikido and Forumtheatre": in the evening there will be an interactive stage performance intended for the pupils as well as for the pupils' parents.

May 2005

- Wednesday 11th May Prize giving to the best pupils in economics.
- Friday 13th May Cultural day at the LCD (in Diekirch and Mersch): a way of experiencing schooling differently thanks to the organization of "alternative" courses.
- Friday 27th May "Calculators and old computers: Computer science at the LCD " Opening of a scientific exhibit. The display will be open to the public at the Old Building of the LCD from the 30th May to the 12th July 2005.

June 2005

- Saturday 18th June Alumni Day at LCD organized at the Old Sawmill (Diekirch) in cooperation with the Alumni Organisation of former graduates
- Thursday 23rd June Presentation of the renovated parts of the LCD to the members of the community of the LCD and their families

July 2005

- | | |
|------------------|---|
| Friday 8th July | School and sporting celebration in the afternoon with the possibility to take part in a great rally |
| Monday 11th July | Solemn ceremony where the graduation diplomas will be handed over to the pupils. |

September 2005

- | | |
|-----------------------|---|
| Monday 26th September | Press conference with presentation of the "LCD Editions" and the history of the LCD |
| Friday 30th September | Official unveiling of the renovated part of the Old Building.
Organisation of a student festival held under a tent |

October 2005

- | | |
|---|--|
| Friday 7th October | "Manifesta"
Opening of a great artistic exhibit by the pupils and the teachers of the LCD. The display will be open to the public in the covered courtyard of the Old Building of the LCD from October 10th to December 16th, 2005. |
| Thursday 13th October | Remembrance Day and inaugural ceremony of the War memorial. |
| Monday 17th October | Arrival of the Japanese students and teachers on the occasion of an exchange between the "Junior Highschool" of Kijimadeira (Japan) and the LCD. |
| Friday 21st October | Academic session of the 175th anniversary of the LCD |
| Friday 28th October and Saturday 29th October | Musical show given by pupils, professors and the alumni students of the LCD. |
| Monday 10th October - Monday 24th October | "Mathematics at a touch" International exhibition offered by the Museum "Mathematikum" of Giessen (D). By the means of 25 interactive and experimental installations, the subject of mathematics is presented in a way attractive and accessible to all. The exposure will be open to the public at the Old Building of the LCD from October 11th to October 24th, 2005. |

November 2005

- | | |
|---|---|
| Wednesday 9th November - Sunday 13th November | "International Conference on the reality of school exchanges in 21st century Europe "
- discussion workshop with pupils, professors and principals of schools participating in a partnership with the LCD
- debates with people in charge within educational, political, economical and cultural fields |
| Friday 11th November | Inauguration of the exhibit on the LCD's international relations and presentation of the publication on the LCD's international relations. |
| Friday 25th November | Exhibition in reference to the project "Schools and Museums", cultural exchange between the LCD and the MNHA of Luxembourg as well as the Lycée d'Arts and the Muzeul de Arta of Ploiesti in Romania. |

December 2005

- | | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Friday 9th December | Concert performed by the Philharmonic Orchestra of Luxembourg at the Centre of Plural Arts in Ettelbruck with the soloist David Ianni |
| Wednesday 21st December | Closing dinner of the LCD's anniversary. |
| (date to be confirmed) | Presentation of a retrospective on the LCD's 175th anniversary |
-

The inaugural ceremony of all new school structures will take place at the end of 2007.

The LCD's publishing service foresees the following books for 2006 and 2007:

- history of the library of the LCD
- history of the school theatre with the LCD
- various teaching projects at the school.